William Shakespeare was a famous poet and playwright wrote many famous plays. Food was seen as a sign of wealth. Water was not used as drink so they drank ale (Link to Vikings).

Wealthy Tudors used maths (symmetry) to build houses and gardens. Windows were a sign of wealth so many stately homes had lots of windows.

Henry's favourite ship was called the Mary Rose this is currently in a dockyard in Portsmouth. The 'War of the Roses' was a series of battles that lasted for 30 years between the House of Lancaster and the House of York. There were six Tudor monarchs altogether and you could get in trouble depending on what religion you were. William Shakespeare was alive in Tudor times. Sugar was fashionable and turned their teeth black.
